Mr. Lisicki has extensive experience in the pharmaceutical industry, having held key leadership positions at pharmaceutical organizations of various sizes. "With a successful track record in strategy, commercial operations, and drug development, Robert is well suited to establish Zura Bio as a leading immunology company. On behalf of the board, I would like to welcome Robert," stated Amit Munshi, Chairman of Zura Bio Board of Directors. "I also appreciate Someit's visionary leadership, which has been instrumental in shaping the company's trajectory thus far. Someit will remain involved as a board member, offering continued guidance."

Commenting on the appointment, Robert Lisicki, Chief Executive Officer and Director, stated, "I'm thrilled to take on this expanded role, and for the opportunity to lead such a talented and experienced team. Zura Bio has made great progress toward what I believe is a bright future, and it is exciting to lead the next chapter of that journey. We are moving into a critical phase of trial execution for tibilizumab in systemic sclerosis and anticipate multiple external and internal readouts over the next 24 months. I believe the collective group of readouts will further validate our pipeline and demonstrate the value we aspire to bring to autoimmune disease. Over the course of my career, I've worked on multiple successful autoimmune therapies and from that experience understand the power of the right asset with the right group of passionate leaders. With our potential indications across our portfolio, I'm eager to drive Zura Bio's mission forward, delivering exceptional strategic focus and value to our stakeholders. I would like to thank Dr. Someit Sidhu for his thoughtful partnership and look forward to working with him in his role as a Board Director."
